"Sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish" we must have "Heart's Delight" coffee.

We take pleasure this week in placing before our many readers the name of Sheridan Gorton, as candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket for District Attorney. Mr. Gorton has made an able and efficient prosecuting officer. He has ably discharged his official duties without fear or favor. Only working to secure right and justice as he saw it. His indictments always stand the test, conviction invarriably following. Mr. Gorton is a member of several societies, in all of which he stands well; he is a good neighbor, tenderhearted and true. The people of McKean county will make no mistake by again placing Mr. Gorton in charge of the prosecuting attorney's office.

Flag Presentation.

Those who were so fortunate as to attend the flag presentation at the court house last Monday night enjoyed a very pleasant hour and a half. The opening exercises, "The flag Salute," was well rendered by the little boys and girls and was highly appreciated by every one present. The program was too lengthy for us to go into detail, but, taken as a whole, the affair was a grand success in every way. The lessons of patriotism taught the little folks will have a lasting impression, and there is no doubt, if opportunity should arise in the future, that many of these little boys and girls would rise to the emergency and be real heroes and heroines. As Gothe, the German poet said, "Let me write the songs of a country, and I care not who makes the laws." So with us, if the rising generation has the love of country and flag instilled into their hearts, there is no danger but that the "cradle of liberty" will be safely rocked and no ruthless hand allowed to endanger its safety.

The stirring and patriotic words of Sup't Eckles and Sap't Mayo were terse and to the point and may they be cherished in every heart that was within the hearing of their eloquent voices. Mr. Choate in a very patriotic speech presented the Smethport school with a magnificent banner donated by the members of the G. A. R. Post of this borough and Mr. Mayo on behalf of the school board accepted the same in a very fitting speech.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Miss Burch for her untiring energy in arranging this entertainment. She certainly labored hard to bring her young classes into such perfect training. She certainly has a natural faculty for this kind of work. The whole secret seems to be her love for her scholars and they in turn loving her and striving to excell one another in love and obedience to their teacher. Her rod of correction is evidently Burch.

Teachers Association.

School Directors should encourage teachers to attend the County Teachers' association at Port Allegany, Feb. 20, 21 and 22. The State pays them for attending the County Institute, and it seems as though they should be willing to do something for themselves without pay in dollars and cents. School boards that are up to the times will hire only such teachers as are constantly on the lookout for an opportunity to advance themselves, and when that opportunity comes take advantage of it. By all means insist on your teachers attending the association this year.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats met at the polling place at the Court House Monday night and put up the following very good ticket:

H. C. Wells and Dan Bacon, councilmen for one year; for 3 years, Wm. Jones and C. A. Burdick. For 3 years, Carl Sasse, Dennis Quinlisk and J. W. Bouton. For auditor, R. E. Burdick. For school directors, C. W. Liligendahl, J. A. Holder. Judge of election, Samuel Fry. Inspector, Herman Sasse

The Republicans having made such excellent nominations for constable, high constable and justice of the peace, the Democrats concluded not to make any nominations for these offices.

It is a fact well worth knowing, that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures colds and coughs more speedily than any other remedy.

Pastor Halliwell Resignes.

At the close of the morning service at the Baptist church last Sunday, Rev. G. W. Halliwell informed the members that he had received a unanimous call from the Kane church, and that he had accepted and would enter upon his new duties the third Sunday in February.

Rev. Halliwell has been pastor of the Smethport church for over three years, coming here in Nov. 1892. During his pastorate many new members have been added to the church roll, a pipe organ purchased and the church put in first-class condition on the interior.

As a pulpit orator, Mr. Halliwell ranks among the best, and as a public speaker he has always been ready to respond in a manner pleasing to those who heard him.

The MINER believes that it will voice the sentiment of the entire community when it says that he will be greatly missed as a minister, public speaker and citizen.

The Kane church is to be congratulated upon its good fortune in securing his services, and it is the sincere wish of his many friends here that his work on the new field may bring forth fruit a hundred fold.

Subscribers are to be provided with Long Distance Transmitters, and have, in addition to the local service, the advantage of being connected with the vast system of toll lines.

Miss Shean has been successful in her work, and has made arrangements to start a plant here next month with the following subscribers:

Drs. Brown, Chadwick, McCoy and Clark; Attorney Bouton, Palmer's Livery, the MINER, Wright House, and Daly's Livery, Grand Central Hotel, H. C. Wells, Residence Rooney's Meat Market, McKean County Poor Farm.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. A. W. Colegrove.

Her Reasons for Marrying.

"I'm about to be married," writes a girl to this office, "and instead of receiving congratulations I know that I need a defence, and take this means of making it. I am twenty-seven years old—old enough to know better, but I have no choice.

"The man is a widower with one child. He liked his first wife better than he does me; I liked a man years ago better than I do him, so we are quits on that. He wants a housekeeper; I want a home. I was brought up to sing a little and play a little, but have no trade. My parents will be glad to see me settled. I would be happier earning $5 or $6 a week and taking care of myself, but I was not taught how.

"There are thousands of women in my position. Every man who brings up his daughters without starting them with the means of earning a livelihood is responsible for just such a mistake as I shall make next month.—Atchison Globe.

Boys, Attention.

We wish to say a few words to the boys who attend school here. First, you do not think your parents would send you to school if they did not think it was for your good. Second, don't you think that the school board desire to give you a good school? Now, to those boys who have been having trouble lately we will make a proposition and ask them to try it for two weeks or more and see what the result will be. When you enter the school room next Monday morning make up your mind that, for two weeks at least, you will do your utmost to obey your teacher, thoroughly learn your lessons, recite them promptly, obey all the rules of the school, be kindly affectionated to your schoolmates, and you will be very much surprised to discover what a pleasant school you are attending. First, bear in mind there are certain obligations devolving upon you as scholars. You do not think for a moment that the school board have hired teachers whose object is your injury. No, their object and aim is for your good. Now get in line and work with your teacher for your own improvement and you will find what a wonderful transformation your own conduct has been able to accomplish.

Republican Nominations.

There was a large attendance at the Republican caucus held last Saturday evening, and everybody seemed anxious to take a hand in nominating a good ticket. E. L. Keenan was made chairman, and an able officer he proved himself to be. W. F. Specht and W. W. Burlingame were chosen secretaries.

Nominations being in order, B. L. Knapp was made the candidate for Justice of the Peace. Dr. Burg Chadwick and Sam. Ramer were nominated for council to serve one year; F. D. Gallup and Christian Herzog, for two years. D. C. Young, James A. McKean, Charles Johnson, S. E. Bell and C. E. Barrett were then placed in nomination for three years. A ballot was taken resulting in favor of of D. C. Young and S. E. Bell with a tie between Jas. A. McKean and Chas. Johnson. A second ballot was taken to decide the tie when Johnson carried off the honors by a large majority. H. L. Burlingame received the nomination for constable and J. A. Verdon for high constable. E. R. Mayo and John Apple for School Directors. Guy Mayo for Judge of Election and R. C. Gleason for Inspector.

Obituary.

Died at Emporium, on Monday last Jonathan Gifford at the age of 80 years. The deceased was born at Egg Harbor, N. J., in December, 1815. When about one year old his parents moved to Bunker Hill, this county. When a small boy he went back to New Jersey, where he received a good education, and for a number of years taught school. About 30 years ago he came to Emporium, where he secured a clerkship in one of the stores. Twenty-nine years ago, when the Emporium Independent was started, he assumed charge as editor and held the position until about three years ago when he resigned owing to failing health. The remains were brought here on the noon train last Wednesday. Quite a number of relatives and friends went to the depot to meet the body and conduct it to Rose Hill cemetery, where the Rev. J. W. Sanborn officiated. Thus has another old land mark passed away.

Court Proceedings.

A. W. Boyd, administrator of the estate Orren Seaward, vs. J. H. Dingman. After two days of hard fighting by legal giants, the jury took it in hand and had a tussel with it for about two days, and could not agree and were discharged.

Phebe T. Morrison vs. Chas D. Seaman. After the plaintiff's evidence was in, the defendants counsel moved for a compulsory non-suit, which was granted. The same day rule to show cause why compulsory non-suit should not be taken off was granted, returnable forthwith. Same day rule to take off compulsor non-suit discharged. Same day motion for stenographer to file notes of testimony granted.

The polling place in Norwich Township changed from the residence of O. D. Gallup to Bartlett Hall in the village of Colegrove.

Nellie Patten vs. C. E. Patten, subphœna in divorce granted.

James Ingraham admitted to citizenship.

C. C. Donaghue appointed guardian of Francis Donaghue and Ambrose M. Donaghue.

W. G. Crosby admitted to practice in the several courts of McKean county.

Minnie Martz vs. Homer C. Martz, subphœna in divorce granted.

A Good Company.

The Standard Theatre began its week with an admirable performance of the big realistic comedy-drama "SideTracked" last evening, and a large audience found much enjoyment in the presentation of this funny side of life on the rail by an excellent company.

There are four acts in the play, each one seeming to be funnier than the one preceding, and the audience is kept continually laughing. Interwoven into the comedy, which is the main element, is a pretty and pathetic little story. It tells of a mysterious crime, which is only solved by the perseverance of the good-natured tramp.

"Horatio Xerxes Booth," the tramp, gave an amusing and not overdrawn representation of the average specimen of that too well-known individual.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BACKS UP THE SENATE.

House Adopts the Armenian Resolution.

STIRRING DEBATE PRECEDED IT.

Representative Hepburn In a Ringing Speech Advocated Handing the Turkish Minister His Passports and Severing Relations.

WASHINGTON, Jan 28 —The house after an interesting four hour debate adopted the resolutions passed by the senate last week calling on the powers, signatory to the treaty of Berlin to enforce the reforms in Turkey guaranteed to the Christian Armenians and pledging the support of congress and the president in the most vigorous action he might take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey.

The house committee had prepared some resolutions on the same subject, but it was deemed advisable after the senate resolution reached the house to substitute them for those prepared by the committee Mr. Quigg of New York, who had charge of the bill, made an able presentation of the case, but there was a disposition on the part of the members to go further than the resolutions did and Mr Hepburn of Iowa proposed to give the Turkish minister his passports and sever diplomatic relations with Turkey

His remarks denouncing Turkish outrages and charging that the powers signatory to the treaty of Berlin were actuated from political and other considerations in maintaining the "balance of power" in Eastern Europe, were received with great enthusiasm, and at one time it looked as if the house might be carried to his way of thinking

But the counsel of Mr Hitt, not to take rash action in the course of which he pointed out the dire consequences that might result from a severance of diplomatic relations with a friendly power that had fulfilled her treaty obligations to us prevailed, and the Hepburn proposition was overwhelmingly defeated

Mr Bailey opposed the resolution on the ground that it would be improper for us to "insult" the parties to the treaty of Berlin by intimating that they had not carried out their obligations

Mr Turner of Georgia took a similar view, and Mr Grosvenor of Ohio characterized the resolutions as "incomplete, inefficient and unworthy" and requested the committee to withdraw them

They were finally passed, however, by a vote of 143 to 26, after a motion of Mr. Bailey to send them to the committee had been defeated, 55 to 102

In the Senate.

Senators Frank J. Cannon and Arthur Brown of the new state of Utah took the oath of office in the senate, the former drawing the term ending March 3, 1899 and the latter the term ending March 3 1897 With the exception of the contested Delaware case, this establishes the political division of the upper branch of congress until March 4, 1897 as follows Republicans 44, Democrats 39, Populists 6, total 89, necessary for majority, 45

Should Mr Dupont be seated from Delaware, the Republican vote would be increased to 45, but at the same time the number necessary for a majority would be increased to 46

BASEBALL MANAGERS MEET.

National Board Holds Its Annual Session In New York.

NEW YORK, Jan 28 —The national board of baseball managers met at the Fifth Avenue hotel Unless all signs fail, this will be one of the most important board meetings ever held

Not only are some important questions between individual players and managers before the meeting, but for the first time in the history of the game the minor leagues have secured recognition and one of the questions before the board is more particularly in regard to the practice which has prevailed in the past whereby the larger clubs acquires a man from one of the smaller clubs and then defers payment for three or four months, reserving the right to return the man to the lesser organization if they choose.

So far as the individual members of the national board were concerned there was only one opinion and that was that in justice to the minor clubs a time limit for holding players before they are paid for should be established

The annual election for a chairman, secretary and treasurer resulted as it has for years past in the election of Nick Young to the position

The managers then adjourned to meet again at the annual scheduled meeting on Feb 24, when all important questions now before the League will be finally disposed of Creedon Defeats Jem Smith.

LONDON, Jan 28 —Dan Creedon, middleweight, defeated Jem Smith, heavyweight in two rounds

Creedon weighed 163 pounds and Smith 190 pounds Creedon showed himself the more clever of the two, besides having a longer reach. Creedon had the best of the first round the company expressing its disproval of Smith's tactics The latter was blowing freely when time was called

In the second round there were a number of smart exchanges, and finally Creedon swung his right with great force on the mark Smith fell like a log and failed to rise, the round only lasting 1m 20s.

Sears Defeats Zimpfer.

BOSTON, Jan. 28.—Mike Sears of Lewistown, Me., defeated Frank Zimpfer of Buffalo in a 12 round contest under the auspices of the Suffolk Athletic association Both men were on their feet at the end of the 12th round, but Sears had Zimpfer practically whipped in the sixth round and he was only saved by the call of time.

Potter Palmer to Succeed Runyon.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Potter Palmer, a lifelong Democrat, will it is asserted, probably be named by President Cleveland as the successor to Theodore Runyon as ambassador to Germany Mr Palmer declines to say whether he would accept the place or not He said it had not yet been offered to him, although rumors of his name being under consideration had reached him.

WELSH MINERS PERISH

Terrific Explosion Occurs In a Colliery.

FIFTY-FOUR KNOWN TO BE DEAD

Exact Number of Men Who Were In the Mine at the Time of the Disaster Not Yet Known and the Death List May Grow.

CARDIFF, Jan 28.—The residents of the town and vicinity of Tylorstown, which is situated near here, were terrified by a terrific reverbration which shook the whole town and caused people to rush out of doors wondering whether they were being overwhelmed by an earthquake It was ascertained in a short time that the concussion was caused by an explosion in a neighboring colliery with disastrous consequences to life and property

The latest report places the number of dead at 54, though it is feared that the further exploration of the wrecked mine will develop the bodies of more

Reports of the number of killed have been conflicting and there is doubt as to the actual number of men in the mine at the time of the catastrophe The first reports gave the number of miners in the shaft at 54, but some of them escaped to the surface bringing the body of one comrade with them

The mining population of the locality know all too quickly what the muffled, thunderous report of the explosion meant, and rushed to the mouth of the pit only to have their worst fears confirmed The shaft was found to be entirely shattered, and it was evident that there was little hope that any of those in the pit could have survived the explosion

The despair of the women who flocked about the mouth of the pit was little more terrible than the horrible anxiety of those that hoped to find that those who were missing from their sides had by some chance not entered the mine

The pit was found to have caught fire, and the hindrance that this caused to the work of the rescue parties added to the excitement and tension of feeling It was only through braving the utmost peril that the living were able to prosecute their quest for the dead

The number of dead removed grew from 12 to 15 and then 20, and the list of those known to have been in the fated shaft kept constantly growing and with it the number of bereaved families waiting at the surface

The work of exploration is going steadily forward, but under great difficulty, the numerous cave-ins obstructing the advance and making it impossible to reach remote portions of the mine, while the defective ventilation often drives back those who are advancing on their sad errand

The last to come out brought with them five bodies None have been found alive, and it is not now hoped that any will be

It was reported later that more bodies had been brought to the surface of the wrecked mine and some of those who were in the mine have been rescued alive and are able to tell something of the occurrence

It is impossible to ascertain the exact number of the victims, as the number of men in the mine at the time of the explosion is not known But those who have been engaged in the work of exploration, and the few survivors who have been rescued, tell terrible stories of the scenes they witnessed and the dead bodies they found or tumbled over, strewn in all directions as they fell overcome by fire-damp or hurled by the force of the explosion

One of the survivors, a fireman, who was in the mine itself when the explosion came, started to work his way in the direction of the entrance with painful and almost hopeless labor, making frequent pauses In one spot he was obliged to stop and wait for four hours on account of the afterdamp At the end of that time he ventured to advance a few steps further when he had to desist again and wait another two hours in hopeless darkness

Another fireman, who made his way out of the death pit by a long journey, relates that he passed numerous men on the way who were unconscious and helpless and badly burned He could do nothing for them and was obliged to leave them to their fate

The rescuers continued their work incessantly all through the night encouraged by the saving of a few to hope that still others remain alive in the mines whose lives may possibly be saved

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Brief Sessions In Senate and Assembly at Albany.

ST. PAUL STILL STRANDED.

The Big Liner Lying In the Spot Where the Tugs Left Her.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan 28. — The International Navigation company's steamer St Paul, which ran aground off Long Branch early on Saturday morning, is still lying broadside on to the shore. She is headed southwest and has scarcely moved an inch from the position in which the tugs left her after they had succeeded in moving her about 50 or 60 yards astern from the spot where she was stuck in the sand when she ran head on Saturday morning.

No attempt was made at high tide to pull the vessel off as the offshore wind was decidedly unfavorable for such an effort, as it drove the water away from the vessel.

The wreckers have great hopes of getting the vessel off tomorrow on the neap tide and are fervently wishing that the wind may change to the east or southeast by that time

WHY THIS RETICENCE?

Extreme Secrecy Surrounds the North Atlantic Squadron.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Although it has now come to be generally understood that any movement made by the North Atlantic squadron at this time, after the detention of the vessels in Hampton Roads, would have absolutely no significance as relating to the Venezuelan question, the officials of the navy department, from the secretary down, still make a mystery of the slightest movements of the vessels and decline to say what is in contemplation, even when one of the ships goes out for target practice off the capes, only to return the next day

The story is current that two of the ships, the Raleigh and the Montgomery, were under orders to sail immediately, but in pursuance of this policy no one in authority at the department would go even so far as to say whether or not the ships had or had not left the Roads

Well Satisfied with Ayer's Hair Vigor.

AYER'S Hair Vigor to keep my hair of good color, to remove dandruff, to heal itching humors, and prevent the hair from falling out. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Nebr.

ST. VITUS DANCE.

A Physician Prescribes Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.:

My daughter Mattie, aged 14, was afflicted last spring with St. Vitus dance and nervousness, her entire right side was numb and nearly paralyzed. We consulted a physician and he prescribed Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She took three bottles before we saw any certain signs of improvement, but after that she began to improve very fast and I now think she is entirely cured. She has taken nine bottles of the Nervine, but no other medicine of any kind.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—"Side-Tracked" Opera house tonight.

—D. M. Brasted has a new sign in front of his bakery.

—Mrs. Wren Ingley is quite sick at her residence on Water street.

—Don't fail to see the good performance of "Side Tracked" at the opera house tonight.

—C. M. Comes, of East Smethport, became the papa of a baby boy on Monday of last week.

—R. K. Godding will soon write an article on dairying, or what he knows about milking a kicking cow.

—Do not fail to read the notice of the School Directors of Mt. Jewett borough, relating to the sale of bonds.

—Geo. Greer, of the South side, was presented by his wife with a bright little leap year girl on Friday last.

—Don't fail to read the new adv. of the East Smethport Racket store. A special sale of lamps will be the attraction next week.

—The young people of East Smethport gave a dance last Monday night, which was highly appreciated by all who attended.

—Isaac Slack and Charles Slack, of Lafayette, were committed to jail by Justice Knapp last Friday on the charge of larceny.

—Talk about "Dickens' curiosity shop." Bert Kidder has a shop that would give Dickens' old place cards and spade and then carry off the victory.

—County Commissioners Jewett, Foster and Hungiville drove to Port Allegany Wednesday to make arrangements about the new bridge that is being built there.

—The large vote that Charles Johnson received last Saturday night for council was certainly very gratifying to the candidate and shows that the Swedes are appreciated.

—We would respectfully suggest that our friend at the "Lumber City" of Potter county, make a few changes in the official directory. His paper would then be more authentic.

—The Prohibitionists of Bradford township, have placed two women on their ticket for school directors, Mrs Whaley and Mrs Robinson. Of course they will be elected, as the voters of that township irrespective of party will vote for the ladies.

—The G. A. R Post, No. 547, will present a flag to the school at East Smethport to-morrow night. Miss Burch and part of her class will take part in the proceedings. A good time is promised. All are cordially invited to attend. Admission 10 cents.

—W. P. Beckwith says he firmly believes in the MINER Frank Fritz and himself were the only two in Keating township who announced their names through its columns for the office of supervisor and they received the nominations while all others were defeated.

—The Republican ticket nominated in Keating township is as follows. Frank Fritz and W. P. Beckwith for supervisors; M. N. Allen, town clerk; P. C. Kepler, Conrad Herzog, school directors; J R Chadwick, Bert Frisbee, auditors; Burg Stickles, constable. An exceptionally fine ticket and no question about its election.

—A birthday party was held at the home of Lew Thomas for his daughter, Mary, age 14, last Saturday evening at East Smethport. The way the pop-corn disappeared and the taffy got pulled was a caution and the little folks enjoyed themselves in games and other amusements until the hour of twelve drew near. Then they scattered for home thinking of their joyful time.

—Since the Oil City Derrick illustrated came out, two sons of the Emerald Isle were looking over its fine half-tone engravings, when Mike says, "Pat, who is that fine looking duck up in the left hand corner?" "Why, Mike, don't you know him? that is 'Two Step' Boyle." "Oh, come off, now; yer joking it is." "Not a bit of it; he never took two steps in his life without a libel suit on his hands.

—An exchange says: "Don't get mad if your visitor's name does not appear in the personal column. Perhaps you did not tell the editor; he's no mind reader. Don't get mad if your neighbor's doing are referred to more frequently than your own. Your neighbor uses his mouth. Your modesty may keep you in obscurity A country newspaper man can't spend all his time on the street—and make three meals a day. If you know any item of news—hold us up and get it out of your system."

—It seems just and proper that Attorney P. R. Cotter has been retained by the colored people as counsel against Mr Woodbury for refusing reputable colored people admission to the rink. "I spent four years of my life in the war to give the colored people equal rights and I will vigorously maintain the principles I fought for," said the eloquent representative of the legal profession in discussing Bradford's color line sensation.—Sunday Herald. P. R. has got the right view of the question.

—The Republican primaries will be held on April 11.

—Peter Daly had his hand severely injured last Saturday night by being kicked by a horse.

—O. S. Greeley has been appointed postmaster at Ormsby, vice W. F. Ormsby, removed.

—To our many advertisers we would say send your change of advs. in no later than Wednesday noon.

—Philetus McCoy slipped on some ice last Sunday while walking in the yard at his son's residence on upper Main St., injuring him slightly.

—Rev. J. W. Sanborn will preach the last of his series of sermons on Job on Sunday evening. These have been of great interest and well attended.

—The sad intelligence reached us yesterday of the death of Mrs W. E. McCoy, at Augusta, Ga. A more extended notice will be given next week.

—County Supt. W. P. Eckles, of Smethport, entertained the teachers of Ceres township, with a one day's normal school at the Empire State school houses at Ceres on Saturday last.

—Our esteemed townsman, John Rooney like "John Bull" is liable to have trouble with Emperor William, of Germany A MINER representative saw him cutting across the rhine on a large fat porker recently.

—The hen-pecked husbands of the M E. church and congregation will give a benefit supper in the Sprague building, Wednesday evening, Feb. 5 from 5 to 10 o'clock The proceeds for the benefit of the church.

—It is said that money talks If that is so there are people not a hundred miles away who have more money than they know how to get rid of.—Reporter. But by the same token there are any number of our subscribers that are entirely spachless.

—S W. Hubbard, of Newton, was presented by his wife with a fine baby girl last week. All concerned are doing well except grandpa, James McKean, who owing to his new relationship is putting on such airs that there is no living with him.

—An exchange puts it thus. "Yes, indeed, these are hard times. We throw away our ashes and grease and buy soap We grow weeds, buy vegetables and brooms. We catch five cent fish with a $4 rod We build school houses and send our children off to be educated, and lastly we send our boys out with a $10 dog and $10 gun to hunt ten cent birds."

—The Olean Times of Monday says: A member of the Pancoast Glass Company yesterday informed the Times that the firm had made definite arrangements to erect a factory in Port Allegany. —The "Bachelors Club," of Port Allegany, are going to have a grand ball on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14th. The MINER suggests that they invite some of the members of the "Rattle Bone Society" to assist in the entertainment. This society consists of sprightly young ladies, who are up to everything appertaining to leap year

—Last Monday evening the oyster supper of the L O. T. M. and the birthday party of Mrs J. C. Cunningham, of East Smethport, was quite well attended A number of valuable presents was accepted by Mrs. Cunningham and a nice little sum for the L O T. M. The last table was served at 1 o'clock a. m by Mrs. May Bush and all went away happy.

—Word has reached here of a very sad affair which occurred at Roulette one day last week. A Mrs Casper went to assist Mrs. Schoonover, a neighbor woman, whose husband had just died, leaving her two children, a boy of six, and a little girl four years old, alone in the house. During her absence the boy secured possession of his father's revolver and began playing with it, when by some means it was discharged, the bullet striking the little girl in the face, killing her almost instantly.

—Last week a man with Republican principles and Democratic tendencies (and having indulged those tendencies to a considerable extent) was trying to induce a Democrat to listen to a public speaker and telling of what wonderful powers of oratory his friend was possessed, but of which the Democrat was very much in doubt. Finally the Democrat asks, "Does he use good language? Does he say 'sic semper tyrannis'" "No, d—n it," said our barley corn friend. "He ain't a Catholic."

Miss Dilley, of Chicago, opened a dancing class here last evening, and will have a class every Thursday evening All those interested in this matter should take advantage of this opportunity.

When It Hurt

Those who hold that no man can avoid his fate may find support for their doctrine in the experience of Charles J. Weller of Elkhart, Ind. He was employed at grinding at an emery wheel, but regarding the position as dangerous handed in his resignation. Five minutes before the time for ending his last day at the work the wheel burst and killed him.—Philadelphia Ledger.

TO THE GOLDEN GATE.

Personally Conducted Tours via Pennsylvania Railroad.

Undoubtedly California offers more genuine attractions to the pleasure traveling public than any other part of the American continent. The fame of its climate is world-wide, and it is sought even by Europeans, who find it more charming than their own southern slopes. To Americans its worth is too well known to necessitate a description of the many advantages to be enjoyed.

Personally-conducted tours via Pennsylvania Railroad will leave New York and Philadelphia February 13 and March 11, 1896. In addition to the many other points of interest visited on the first tour a stop will be made at New Orleans for the Mardi-Gras festivities, and four weeks will be allowed in California. On the second tour four and one-half weeks will be allowed in California.

An addition to the magnificent train heretofore used for these tours is a through Pullman compartment car.

The car, which will be the very best that the Pullman Company can supply, will contain nine enclosed compartments—two drawing rooms and seven state rooms—and will be attached to the special train at Jersey City and run through to San Diego, Cal., on the first tour, and San Francisco on the second.

This will be the first car of its kind to be run on a transcontinental train, and that it will be thoroughly appreciated by participants in the tours is evidenced by the fact that already several of the compartments have been reserved.

Applications for space or itineraries giving all information should be made to Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

AN ANGEL IN DISGUISE.

A Burglar Conferred a Favor by Opening a Safe.

The proprietor of a large store on High street went to his place of business at an unusually early hour the other morning. In fact, the sun had not yet risen when he turned the key in the door. On entering he was surprised to find a man trying to open the door of his safe.

He stood and watched him for some time, apparently deeply interested in the proceedings, when finally the burglar swung open the door of the safe with a delighted chuckle, but happening to turn he saw that he was discovered and became very much alarmed. He jumped up and was about to make his escape through a back window when the merchant called to him:

"Don't be in a hurry, my friend. Come back and sit down awhile and smoke a cigar while I straighten things up a bit, and then come home to breakfast with me. You have done me a great favor."

"Why, how's that?" asked the burglar in great surprise.

"Well, you see, I had the combination of the safe on a bit of paper, and last night I accidentally locked it in the safe and forgot how to work it. I spent most of the night trying to get the thing open and came in early this morning to have another try at it."—West Medford (Mass.) Windmill.

A Terrible Scene.

Strohschneider, the famous aeronaut, astonished the natives of Stockerau, near Vienna, by carrying a young barrister on his back along a tight rope 80 meters in length fixed to the church steeple. A few days later flaming posters appeared on the walls announcing that Strohschneider would effect a balloon ascent in the company of Herr Pramper, the popular landlord of the White Rose.

Notwithstanding the fact that the police had forbidden the landlord, who has a large family, from taking part in the performance, mine host entered the enclosure at the appointed time, to the no small delight of the assembled multitude. At a given signal the balloon rose in the air, Strohschneider and the landlord sitting on the trapeze beneath. Some of the spectators declare that the latter turned as pale as a sheet during his upward flight, though he did not fail to wave his hat to the crowd. After reaching a dizzy height the two balloonists were observed to quarrel and actually come to blows.

All at once the landlord plunged headlong into space. A shout of horror arose from the spectators, who ran to the spot where they expected to find Pramper lying with broken limbs. What was their astonishment at discovering, not a corpse, but a lay figure dressed in one of the landlord's suits. The mannikin was conveyed to Stockerau in triumph.—Herriedener Laubfrosch.

For Wheelmen.

A certain lawyer's face was a puzzle the other day as he pored over a pamphlet. Finally he broke out with:

"What the deuce they call this The Law Bulletin for I can't see."

His companion shouted with laughter.

"It's The L. A. W. Bulletin, you jay!" he cried, and then he chortled in his glee.—Worcester Gazette.

Kentucky Senatorial Fight.

LOUISVILLE, Jan 28.—A special from Frankfort says: Although no one expected that a senator would be elected, the lobbies and galleries of the house were again crowded at noon, when the fifth ballot of the joint assembly was taken. A number of pairs were made on Saturday to enable members to go home on account of sickness or important business. The rollcall showed 128 members present and voting. The ballot resulted as follows: Blackburn, 55; Hunter, 63, Hazelrigg, 8, Willson, 1; Bale, 1. The joint assembly adjourned immediately after the vote was announced until today noon.

Sweeting Will Contest.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 28.—The Sweeting will contest, which has been causing considerable excitement in Brockport, where the decedent lived, came before the surrogate here. The case is interesting as there are two women who claim to be the widows of Sweeting. Ellen M. Sweeting affirms that she is the lawful wife of J. B. Sweeting and that the other woman, M. Leonora Crowley—or Sweeting, was never married to Sweeting.

Woman Suffrage Officers Chosen.

WASHINGTON, Jan 28.—At the Woman's Suffrage convention the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Susan B. Anthony, re-elected unanimously; vice president-at-large, Anna Howard Shaw, re-elected, corresponding secretary, Alice Stone Blackwell; treasurer Harriet Taylor Upton; first auditor, Miss Laura Clay; second auditor, Mrs. Anna Digge.

In a Receiver's Hands.

MALONE, N. Y., Jan 28.—Hon John L. Gilbert has been appointed receiver of the affairs of E. R. Bryant & Co., who purchased last fall several thousand acres of timber land above Mountain View in Franklin county and erected a steam sawmill thereon. The receivership is said to have been brought about by disagreement among the partners.

Bat Shea Murder Case.

ALBANY, Jan. 28.—George Raines of Rochester, counsel for the people in the case of Bat Shea, the convicted murderer, arrived in this city on his way to Schoharie, where the application for a new trial for Shea is to be argued. Last night he was closeted with Assistant District Attorney Fagan of Troy and they left this morning.

Many cases of so called heart disease, are only cases of acid fermentation in the stomach. The irritation from the acid hinders the action of the heart, through the pneumogastric nerve, and very often the excessive restraining power of this peculiarly acting nerve, becomes a very serious matter; the heart makes the greatest effort to do its work, but there is a shortness of breath which cannot be made up for, and the feeling throughout the chest is very distressing. Sometimes this acid arises and causes an acrid smarting in the throat; at other times the burning is up and down the chest.

Another stomach trouble is that form of dyspepsia which gives pain after eating. Persons with this disease seem to have but a scant measure of nerve strength; when food is being digested, the stomach needs the concentration of all of the nerve and brain force, and if reading or close thought is attempted soon after eating, the stomach commences that intolerable aching which dyspeptics dread so much, when, the only immediate relief appears to be to stop the mental activity and get up and move around. In such cases there is evidently for the time being, too little nerve power to divide between the stomach and the brain; each one alone needs it all to enable it to perform its labor.

There are two properties possessed by Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic, which constitute it a cure for all of the above derangements. One, is its power of purifying and sweetening the stomach and stopping the formation of gas and acid; the other is the giving of increased nerve action and strength. Soon, with better digestion and better nutrition, there is a general renewal of life and health. The mind of a business man, under its use, soon become clearer and more active, thoughts come easier and are more clearly expressed, the memory is stronger, business plans and ventures are arranged in a better manner and are more patiently and successfully carried out, and details are attended to better because of the increased strength of both mind and muscle.

Women having the care of a household on their minds, find Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic to be a great blessing; it gives better digestion, better nutrition, more strength, cures that feeling of weariness in the morning, that anxiety of mind, that fear that something is going wrong or that something bad is going to happen, cures dizziness, shortness of breath, pressure through the chest, belching of wind, rumbling in the bowels, heartburn, and all forms of dyspepsia that come from weakness.

Mrs. Eben Pierce, of Berlin, Potter Co., Pa., writes: "I can truthfully say that I owe my life to your stomach and nerve tonic. I was troubled with my stomach for over a year and tried everything I could hear of, but did not get any benefit. I was nearly in despair, for although I had only four in my family, I could not begin to do the work for them; an anxious friend wrote me to try Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic, and I did; I did not expect to ever get any better, but was greatly relieved on taking the first dose and now after taking only one bottle of your remedy I can do my work and my stomach does not hurt me only when I do very heavy work; I shall continue its use until I am entirely cured for I am perfectly satisfied that it will cure all such stomach trouble. I thank you dear Doctor, a thousand times over, for putting before the public such a wonderful remedy for human suffering."

Mrs. Albert Harmon, of 2305 Fifth Ave., Altoona, Pa., writes, "Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic has done me a power of good; that burning after meals has left me; I have always been so nervous that I would take nervous spells so bad sometimes that I would have to send for the doctor, but have not had one since I commenced using your stomach and nerve tonic."

H. C. Beatty, Barkeyville, Pa., says, "For years I had a severe pain in my stomach after meals; one bottle of Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic cured me; I think permanently."

J. C. Fulton, of Burgettstown, Pa., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism and was laid up in bed a good part of the time; my stomach was in a bad condition and would not retain food. I began to use Dr. Day's Stomach and Nerve Tonic it not only helped my stomach but relieved me of the rheumatism and also increased my weight wonderfully."

A TRUE STORY.

In a cabin at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains lived a beautiful girl with her aged father. They were very poor, and as their little "Mountain Home" was soon to be sold under a mortgage, it was with joy that the old father welcomed as a suitor for his daughter's hand an old and wealthy friend of his youth, who, having come to pay him a visit, had fallen in love with the charming girl. She, having lived so long in poverty, was quite carried away by the tales told her by the rich old friend regarding the wealth and splendor of his city home, and he offered her land, gold and diamonds if she would become his bride. She had a dark-eyed mountain lover, who was too poor to offer her anything but roses.

WHICH DID SHE CHOOSE?

The question is answered in the (3) verse song and chorus entitled:

"DIAMONDS OR ROSES,"

Words and Music by C. H. ADDISON.

This is one of the most catchy, brilliant and fascinating songs ever published, and is now being sung with great success in all the large cities. Price 40 cents
